

You can't get an inside price outside of Richmond Hill

EVERY little while we let fly a volley at the man who buys his apparel needs out of the city.

If you are that man—please don't get out of patience with us—we are simply doing what we think is best for you, ourselves and the town in general.

We know for a fact that in these suits at $35 and $40 there are no brighter examples of worth or more glittering specimens of woolsens.

What? You don't believe it? Gee, that's fine!

Now if you will only give us the chance to prove it—

Easy!

STATE A. L. FUND CAMPAIGN NOW ON

Arrangements Have Been Made to Start Drive in Greater New York June 22

FOR DISABLED VETS AND ORPHANS

Practically all of the Empire State, Greater New York excepted, is in the midst of American Legion Endowment Fund week.

Reports of an encouraging nature indicating that New York is well on the way toward its goal in the campaign for World War orphans and disabled veterans, have been received at headquarters of the State endowment fund committee according to Samuel Aronowitz, commander of the State Department of the Legion.

Many cities and towns have gone "over the top," others have reached a point within striking distance, and still others have a long way yet to go before their quotas are attained. Because of the delay in sending in reports from many communities, it is impossible to determine what percentage of the State's share in the national soldier and orphan relief project has been raised.

In New York City the endowment campaign will begin June 22, Commander Aronowitz said. It, therefore, will not be possible to determine the record made by the State until after the results here are known.

While expressing confidence in the final outcome in New York, Commander Aronowitz warned against any recession in activities until the State quota is definitely assured. "The American Legion is making an appeal for the settlement of the greatest post-war problems in the United States," declared the State Legion leader. "The appeal may be the last of its character growing out of the great war. Therefore it may be the last opportunity for us to demonstrate how we feel toward those upon whose lives the war has placed an indelible mark.

"Since the birth of the nation itself, New York has always called upon to take the lead in every great and patriotic endeavor. How nobly and promptly New York has answered that call in the past is a matter of record. New York has never failed to do her part and more. The whole nation looks to us for leadership in this campaign as it has in others of the past. "Our goal is in sight. We'll win but there is much hard work yet to be done."

FRAME'S HOME RUN WITH BASES FULL WINS FOR PILGRIM

Pilgrim Chapter, Order of DeMolay, won its fourth straight victory from Queens A. B. C. 9-8.

With Pilgrim four runs behind in the last inning Von Stein singled and Hughes followed his example. Rice passed Warner filling the bases. Captain Charlie Frame smashed the ball with a vengeance and brought in his three team mates on a home run. This tied the score 8-8.

Gallagher opened Queens half of the final inning with a single. He made second and stole third as Connelly struck out. On an attempt to steal home Gallagher was caught on a snap from Von Stein to Schultz. This was Queens last attempt to score. However in the extra inning with two down Pilgrim scored the winning run with singles by Hughes and Warner.

Score by innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 h e Pilgrim . . . 2 0 1 1 0 4 1 9 12 3 Queens . . . 2 0 1 0 0 5 0 0 8 7 2 Batteries: Pilgrim, Von Stein and Schultz, Albert. Queens ABC, Goody and Rice and Houlick.

FLUSHING'S FAMOUS TREES SAVED BY CITY'S PURCHASE

The famous weeping beech and golden larch trees on the Jackson estate on Washington Place, Flushing, will be saved from destruction as the result of the action of the Board of Estimate in appropriating $60,000 for the purchase of the property on which those trees stand.

The board, in voting the appropriation, decided to levy 50 per cent. of the cost of the property against the Borough of Queens and 50 per cent. against the city at large.

QUEENS COMMERCE CHAMBER MOVES INTO NEW HOME

After fourteen years in the Electric Building in Long Island City the Queensboro Chamber of Commerce has moved to the Plaza Crescent Building, Bridge Plaza South and Crescent Street, where it occupies most of the fifth floor. The location is one of the most convenient in Long Island City, being situated opposite the Bridge Plaza station of the rapid transit lines and directly at the entrance to the Queensboro Bridge, over which more than 100,000 people pass every day.

This will be the second move the Chamber has made since it was organized in 1911. It was first located on Fulton Street, Jamaica, but soon moved to the Electric Building in Long Island City where one room was sufficient to house the working force. In the new place the Chamber will occupy 5,000 square feet devoted to the offices of the staff of fourteen persons, a club room, dining room and kitchen.

Queens Women Ask that Sensational News Be Kept Off Front Pages

Dr. Christian F. Risner, will be the principal speaker at the Forum of the Long Island Federation of Women's Clubs at the 40th convention, being held today at the First M. E. Church, Clinton Avenue, Jamaica. The convention was opened with Mrs. Glenn Cuyler Petit, the president, in the chair. Dr. Risner will talk on "Our Modern Youth."

Election and installation of new officers will take place.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the federation last week, a resolution was adopted, petitioning the newspapers to eliminate from their front pages stories dealing with crime, divorce scandals and other news liable to prove harmful to the minds of children and youths.

Twenty new clubs were accepted by the Executive Committee, to be received into the federation at the annual convention today.

These clubs are: Philanthropic League of Queens, 24; Beechurst Women's Club, Inc., Republican League of Flushing, Women's Republican Club of Freeport, Parent-Teachers' Association, P. AWARDED $20,000 FOR AUTO HURTS

Richmond Hill Woman Struck By 5-Ton Truck—In Hospital Nine Months

Miss Margaret Melody, 55, a nurse, of 253 127th Street, Richmond Hill, was given a verdict of $20,000 against David Kopelowitz, coal merchant, of 241 Moore Street, by a jury in the Queens Supreme Court before Justice Cropsey for injuries alleged to have been received when she was run down by a truck owned by Kopelowitz on March 26, 1924, at Wallabout Street and Bedford Avenue.

Miss Melody while returning home from an all night case, was crossing the street when the truck, driven by Barnett Kopelowitz, a son of the defendant, struck her. She was confined to Cumberland Hospital for nine months, the flesh on her right side and the muscles having been torn and lacerated.

Gangrene developed and several prominent physicians and surgeons were needed to save her life. Her attorneys charged that as a result of the accident, Miss Melody had aged 25 years.

The defendant contended that the accident occurred through contributory negligence, in that it was said Miss Melody was carrying an umbrella in a snowstorm at the time she was struck and was not giving attention to traffic.

ROW IN CHINESE RESTAURANT ENDS IN ARREST OF PROPRIETOR

Choy Hong, 31, of Manhattan, manager of a Chinese restaurant at 108-07 Jamaica Avenue, Richmond Hill, was arraigned before Magistrate Harry Miller in the Jamaica Magistrate's Court Monday on a charge of assault made by Robert Turnell, of Richmond Hill. Hong was taken before Magistrate John Kochendorfer in the Jamaica court later and pleaded not guilty.

Turnell alleges that Saturday night he went into Hong's restaurant and ordered some chow mein. The waiter said he had none, and Turnell told him his restaurant was no good. Turnell says Hong then attacked him with a club.

Hong asserts that when Turnell was told he could not get chow mein he began breaking up furniture and acting in a disorderly manner. He said he did try to quiet Turnell, but denied striking him with a club.

DEFENSE MUSTER TO BE JULY 4

War Department Will Speed Up Arrangements to Make National Wide Test

A nation-wide defense muster of American manpower will be held under the direction of the War Department on July 4. The date was selected definitely after President Coolidge had disapproved the Department's selection of Armistice Day and had suggested that Independence Day be substituted.

A conference of general staff officers to begin work on plans for the muster was called. Acting Secretary Davis' communications on the subject to the Governors of the States will be framed in accordance with an expressed desire of the President that they should emphasize that any action taken by the States will be of a purely voluntary character.

The National Guard and the organized reserves, as well as the civilian military training camps and other auxiliary units of the new Army system, will be compelled to move at double speed in preparing for the muster, owing to the brief time remaining.

War Department officials, therefore, do not expect as complete a test of the muster system as would have been possible at a later date in the year, but they will employ every resource to make it the best demonstration possible under the circumstances.

R. H. Woman Dies Suddenly

Mary Hughes, 70, of 10437 124th Street, Richmond Hill, suddenly ill at her home Friday, died soon after. Just prior to her death she had been in her garden. Upon returning to the house, she said she did not feel well and intended to go to her room. Later she was found by her husband at the foot of the stairs, dead. It is believed that death was due to heart disease.

A gold-plated walking stick with a perfume holder in the top was carried by Henry the VIII.

FREE RADIO

HERE'S a real opportunity! One that may bring to you all the pleasure that comes to those who "listen in" on a radio.

You have the opportunity of possessing a Clearstone Radio Receiving Set! The cabinet is of solid mahogany—a beautiful piece of furniture. The selectivity of this set is remarkable, and distant stations can be distinctly heard on a loud speaker with plenty of volume.

The details of how you may become the owner of this Radio Set can be secured at our store on Saturday, June 6. And at the same time you will have the opportunity to witness a very interesting demonstration of Lowe Brothers Paints and Varnishes.

DEMONSTRATION

Paints—Lowe Brothers—Varnishes

SATURDAY, JUNE 6

Do you know that a wall finished with Lowe Brothers Mello-Gloss, a liquid oil paint, can be washed—even free of grease—with surprising ease? Visit our demonstration—we'll show you how easily it is done.

At our demonstration, you will see Neptunite Varnish subjected to severe abuse and, yet, never turn white. We'll even iron a wet towel until dry on a varnished surface to show the wear-resistance of Neptunite Varnish.

Let us show you how with one sweep of the brush you can stain and varnish your furniture, woodwork or floors with Lowe Brothers Varnish Stain.

Don't miss this demonstration and the opportunity to become the owner of this Free Radio Set
